POWER GRIP RV TWO-PLUG 15-AMP TO SINGLE 30-AMP ADAPTER Converts a standard NEMA 5-15R duplex receptacle to a single TT-30 receptacle. It allows a 30-amp RV to be plugged into a 15-amp outlet—ideal for both residential and generator use. The adapter reduces receptacle overheating by using both receptacles of a duplex outlet. This allows cooler operation during peak loads. The top 15-amp plug adjusts to fit both standard and GFCI receptacles. This product features a 2 (5-15P) / TT-30R connection and is rated for 125 Volts / 1875 Watts.

55225 15-Amp to 30-Amp Adapter

RV 50-AMP CIRCUIT ANALYZER WITH INTEGRATED SURGE PROTECTION AND FAULT INDICATION This item helps protect your RV from power surges and faulty electrical connections. Diagnostic LEDs indicate faults when you connect your electrical cord to the power pedestal. The circuit analyzer indicates faults for reverse polarity, open neutral and other wiring issues. Includes integrated surge protection of up to 2,100 Joules. It is weatherproof and able to withstand adverse weather conditions. A contoured grip makes unplugging easier. 50-amp male (NEMA 14-50P)/50-amp female (NEMA 14-50R). Patent pending.

55309 50 amp Circuit Analyzer

CAMCO'S POWER GRIP OFFSET ADAPTERS allow your 30- or 50-amp RV to hook up to a campground power pedestal of a different amperage. They are compatible with other RV electrical extension cords and dogbones. For RV use only—use with 125 VAC circuit breakers rated for the lower amperage. These adapters feature an offset design that puts less stress on the receptacle. The Power Grip handles assists in safe and easy gripping, plugging, and unplugging. The compact design saves space for simple storage.

RV STABILIZER JACK LUBE, 15 OZ

Camco's Eaz-Lift RV Stabilizer Jack Lube helps protect and maintain your RV's stabilizer jacks, tongue jacks, steps and more. It is ideal for helping prevent rust build-up in storage. This protectant spray offers the maximum lubrication and protection of expensive stabilization mechanisms, where there is metal-on-metal friction. The lube allows the mechanism assemblies to move freely and smoothly without gumming up or staining. This product can also be used to lubricate and help inhibit corrosion on undercarriage parts, marine fittings and trailer hitches. The spray uses PTFE moisture-displacing technology to leave a long-lasting dry, non-greasy film that coats and seals to ward off dirt and grime and help protect against rust and corrosion. This product is specially formulated to meet stringent military specifications for deterring corrosion (MIL SPEC: MIL-C-23411; MIL-C-16173D; MIL-C-22235A). The formulation does not contain any chlorinated or fluorinated solvents and is fortified with PTFE. Rated for a minimum of 336 hours of continuous salt spray and 720 hours of 100% relative humidity. Size: 15 oz.
